Conference Keynote Speaker ERVIN WATSON

Ervin Watson is an enthusiastic keynote speaker, trainer and business consultant who is one of the most soughtafter School Nutrition speakers and trainers. Having twice been selected to present at SNA's annual conference as part of the Richard B. Russell leadership series, Ervin is also a 17-year veteran of school nutrition, having served as a manager and program administrator at the local and district level. At the state level, he was an education specialist for the state department of education of Georgia. In addition to running a successful leadership development consultancy, Ervin is currently working on the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Access task force for SNA. He brings a unique perspective to the challenges our industry is facing. Ervin says that the reason he stays so busy is that "...he loves what he does and loves the people he does it for".

Exhibitor Information

Things to know about kitchen access at Turning Stone

- Exhibitors are NOT ALLOWED in the Turning Stone Event Center kitchen.
- Turning Stone is ONLY responsible for warming products, NOT assembling them.
- If you do need your product warmed, please check the box which states "I will need the chef from Turning Stone to warm my products" on the online conference registration form.
- If you have checked the box, a form will be sent to you to fill out. It will ask what products will need to be warmed, what times you will need them for and your booth number.
- On the day of the show, a food runner from Turning Stone will deliver your warmed product to your booth at your specific time that you stated.
- If you are bringing your own equipment, please make sure you are ordering the correct amount of electric needed.
- Keep in mind Exhibitors requiring more than 20 amps of power MUST choose from booths 100-109 or 612-623
